

Major Requirement Worksheet

for catalog years 2000 and later

Lower Division Core	COURSE SEMESTER
Fundamental Communication Processes and Skills (6 Units)
Select from: Comm 3, Comm 4, Comm 5, Comm 7 and Comm 8 (Double counting for GE Area A allowed)
Upper Division Core (12 Units)
Complete all 4 core courses: Comm 100, Comm 140, Comm 142 and Comm 166	100
	140
	142
	166
Personal and Relational Settings (6 Units)
Select from: Comm 108, Comm 120, Comm 150, Comm 161, Comm 162 and Comm 164
Advocacy in Public Settings (6 Units)
Select from: Comm 15, Comm 103, Comm 105, Comm 115, Comm 148, Comm 149, Comm 163 and Comm 170
Organizational and Professional Settings (6 Units)
Select from: Comm 165, Comm 167, Comm 168, Comm 176 and Comm 179
Major Electives (6 Units)
Select any six units (two courses) from any Upper-Division Comm Courses or: Comm 114, Comm 116, Comm 160, Comm 169, Comm 171, Comm 188T, Comm 189 and Comm 190

Advising Notes:

- This total indicates that 6 units of COMM 3, 5, 7 and/or 8 also may be applied to fulfill General Education Foundation A1 and A3 requirements.
- No more than 3 units from COMM 15 and 6 units from COMM 115 can count toward fulfillment of the communication major. No more than 3 units from COMM 115 can be applied to the Advocacy in Public Settings Area.
- CR/NC grading is not permitted in the communication major with the exception of COMM 179 (Internship).
- No more than 6 units of COMM 179 (Internship) may be applied toward completion of the communication major.
- Students are allowed only 3 units of COMM 190 and no more than 6 units toward the baccalaureate degree.
- No General Education Multicultural/International course offered by the Communication Department may be used to satisfy the General Education requirements for majors in the department.